

Episode 6: Guest bios

Episode name: Microeconomics for lawyers

Guest(s): George Beaton

DR GEORGE BEATON Executive Chairman

Dr George Beaton is the co-founder of Beaton, a global management consulting firm advising the professional services industry. He has advised Beaton's clients through a wide variety of strategic decisions in his 30+ years as an adviser and researcher. With a background in business school teaching combined with his work in professional services firms, public and private companies, universities and governments, George has deep insights into the challenges and opportunities that leaders and their organisations face. He holds MBBCh, MBA and PhD degrees and has authored two agenda-defining books in the global legal services industry: NewLaw New Rules – A Conversation About the Future of the Legal Services Industry in 2013, and Remaking Law Firms: Why & How with Dr Imme Kaschner in 2016.

DAVID TURNER Host

David Turner has a gift for teasing out people's stories, so it's no wonder he is Hearsay's host. With a double Bachelor of Arts and Laws from Macquarie University, he is also an MBA candidate at UNSW's Australian Graduate School of Management.

When he isn't interviewing people on Hearsay, David is a lawyer at Assured Legal Solutions, a boutique financial services law firm located in Sydney's CBD. Prior to joining Assured, he was called to the NSW Bar, and is a former President of NSW Young Lawyers and a former Councillor of the Law Society of NSW.

David spends the little downtime that he has left reading historical fiction and tinkering on home improvement projects.
